

CURATED NATIONAL NEWS

Busiest Transit Hub in U.S. Rocked By Delays as Infrastructure Breakdowns Hit During Heat Wave

NBC News

Off The Rails: SEPTA is Vital to the Livelihood of the Entire Region. So Why is it So Hard to Fund?

Philadelphia Inquirer

'Historic' Settlement With Youth Will Force Hawaiian Transit System to Speed Decarbonization

Common Dreams

Cheap, Easy, Good: We Need to Think Like Amazon to Decarbonize Transportation

Next City

'We Give Them Second Chances': the Frontline Workers Guiding Riders Through LA's Transit System

The Guardian

How DC's Bus Shelters Can Better Serve Riders Who Need Them Most

GGreaterWashington

Mass Transit Delays Are Wrecking the Return-to-Office Push

BNN Bloomberg

REGIONAL NEWS LINKS

Governor announces plans for Red Line in Baltimore

The Red Line will be a light rail rather than a rapid bus line, Gov. Wes Moore announced.

WBAL / Jun 28

Transit for Us All: West Baltimore Community Members Say They Want More Connected Neighborhoods.

Arica Gonzalez doesn't want to talk about bike lanes. To her, they represent people passing through her West Baltimore neighborhood — people with no vested interest in the residents nearby. What she does...

Baltimore Beat / Jun 24

Want to live near a Baltimore Metro station? MDOT wants to build hundreds of apartments near one

The Maryland Department of Transportation wants to turn a parking lot near the Reisterstown Metro station into apartments, offices and retail shops.

The Baltimore Banner / Jun 26