

CURATED NATIONAL NEWS

NJ Transit Riders' Irritation Grows With Summer of Delays, Canceled Trains

NorthJersey

Pittsburgh Regional Transit Could Borrow \$800 Million to Replace Light Rail Trains

Pittsburgh Union Progress

SEPTA to Implement Safety Initiatives and Corrective Action Plans Following FTA Recommendations

Mass Transit

Crime is Rising at L.A. Metro. Is a New Police Force the Answer?

Cal Matters

Metro Transit Resumes 12-Minute Light Rail Departures as Hiring, Ridership Pick Up

Twin Cities Pioneer Press

More RTD Reform is Coming Next Year, Colorado Legislators Say

CPR News

New York MTA Sued for Alleged Cuts to Bus Service

Smart Cities

REGIONAL NEWS LINKS

Though ridership lags, regular users depend on Baltimore light rail's low-cost regional access

Some Baltimore residents rely on the state-supported light rail because they say it's one of the few transit methods they can afford.

Baltimore Sun / Jul 26

New Frederick Douglass Tunnel project set to upgrade West Baltimore station

The project is set to improve commute times from Baltimore to Washington D.C., but some residents remain hesitant.

CBS Baltimore / Jul 23

Ditching the gas tax and charging per mile; Maryland testing new way to fund transportation needs

With a decline in fuel tax revenue, Maryland is testing a new way to bring in money to pay for critical transportation projects.

WMAR 2 News Baltimore / Jul 24