

CURATED NATIONAL NEWS

Maryland Transit Administration Unveils Ambitious BMORE BUS Plan

Metro

Virginia Approves $7 Billion Six-Year Plan to Boost Public Transit and Rail Infrastructure

NBC News

SEPTA Board Approves Budget with Massive Service Cuts, Fare Hikes

PHL17

Why Bus Service Cuts Should Be the Last Resort for Transit Agencies

Metro

Cost for Repairs to U.S. Transit Assets Estimated at $140.2 Billion

Pew Charitable Trusts

On the Right Track: Rail Transit Project Delivery Around the World

ENO Center for Transportation

Trump Administration Barred from Using Transit Funds to Force States' Compliance with ICE

Courthouse News Service

REGIONAL NEWS LINKS

Moore issues latest call for proposals to redevelop aging State Center complex

Efforts to redevelop the aging State Center Complex in Baltimore have spanned decades and seen governors and legal battles come and go. Now Gov. Wes Moore (D) wants to try his hand at fixing up the campus.

 Maryland Matters / Jun 27

The path forward for the Red Line is narrowing. So what will Gov. Moore do?

Two years after Gov. Wes Moore revived the Red Line, Baltimore's proposed east-west light rail feels mired in uncertainty.

 The Baltimore Banner / Jun 27

Plan calls for added MARC train frequency, adding new stops

In response to a significant surge in ridership this year, the Maryland Transit Administration announced expansion plans as part of the MARC Growth and Transformation Plan.

 WRAI / Jun 25