

CURATED NATIONAL NEWS

New APTA Reports Show Strong Industry Growth, U.S. Ridership Reaching 85 Percent of Pre-Pandemic Levels and Rising

APTA

Chicago Risks Severe Cuts to Transit. Its Poorest Suburbs Could be Hit Even Harder

ABC News

How Gentrification is Killing the Bus: California's Rising Rents are Pushing Out Commuters

Cal Matters

PA: Transit Cuts Would Pose an 'Existential Threat' to Philadelphia's Center City, Business Owners Say

Mass Transit

Transit Bus Deliveries Stabilize in 2024, but Market Still Trails Pre-Pandemic Levels

Metro

How Much Transit Investment Is Needed to Get Back to "Normal"?

The Equation

Bus Network Redesigns in the Modern Age: How U.S. Transit Agencies Adapt to Evolving Travel

ENO Center for Transportation

REGIONAL NEWS LINKS

The District's transportation system taxes everyone's time

DC residents pay a transportation time tax that harms riders and drivers alike.

Maryland Transit Administration Launches Next Phase Of Southern Maryland Rapid Transit Project

WALDORF, Md. — The Maryland Department of Transportation Maryland Transit Administration invites residents, business owners and stakeholders to attend the upcoming open house meetings for the...

The BayNet / May 15

Upgrading MTA fareboxes means new payment system for riders

The Maryland Transit Administration will begin replacing its legacy fare collection equipment with new, modern fareboxes on all its buses operating on the agency's local bus routes this summer.

Baltimore Fichthel / May 15